

Refugee Class for Professionals in Arts and Design at the University of the Arts Berlin Career College – Free

Dear Refugee, are you an artist, designer, or a professional in other creative fields? Do you want to learn more about professional opportunities in creative fields in Germany? Are you looking to network with fellow artists and to connect with experts from relevant German businesses and institutions?

The University of the Arts Berlin Career College invites you to a free Refugee Class for Professionals in Arts and Design. The overarching goal of the class is to familiarize you with the landscape of creative professions in Germany and to give you access to helpful professional connections and knowledge.

Module 1 – Orientation and Networking

In the week from February 29 to March 4, we will offer introductions to the following topics:

Monday, February 29, 2016

2 – 4 pm – Big Data in Creativity

4 – 6 pm – Independent art as a professional field

Tuesday, March 1, 2016

2 – 4 pm – Communication

4 – 6 pm – Film and TV

Wednesday, March 2, 2016

2 – 4 pm – Concept- and Idea-Development

4 – 6 pm – Multimedia journalism

Thursday, March 3, 2016

2 – 4 pm – Music

4 – 6 pm – Design

Friday, March 4, 2016

2 – 4 pm – Basics: Design-Research, Online Education, Self-management, Law

The program will be held in English and/or German. If participants are interested, there will be networking events, introductions to specific sectors (for example through site and company visits), and project work. The workshop is designed for professionals with or without a university degree. We are happy to issue a certificate of participation.

For more information and registration:

www.udk-berlin.de/ziw

Facebook: www.facebook.com/events/512679685579188/

Email: ziw@udk-berlin.de

Workshop location:

Universität der Künste Berlin

Berlin Career College

Bundesallee 1-12, Room 336

10719 Berlin

Subway stop: Spichernstraße U3/U9